

TeamMate

The New Zealand working dog project

The TeamMate study

-  641 dogs participated
-  126 owners
-  116 farms
-  2 academic papers
-  Ran from May 2014 – late 2018

PARTICIPANTS FROM
Canterbury and
Otago regions

KEY FINDINGS & VETLIFE RECOMMENDATIONS

VACCINATIONS	WORMING	ARTHRITIS	BEDDING
 24% OF DOGS WERE ONLY BEING VACCINATED AS ADULTS	 85% OF OWNERS FED MEAT AS PART OF A DOG'S NORMAL DIET	 74% HAD CLINICAL ABNORMALITIES	 86% SLEPT IN UNINSULATED KENNELS

Parvovirus and Kennel / Canine Cough vaccinations given in-clinic or on-farm	Regular dosing provided via DogTrax programme. Only feed meat properly prepared to kill sheep measles	Vetlife provides preventative advice, therapy, treatments and products	Warm dogs use less energy and good bedding prevents pressure sores. Vetlife can provide beds and coats

Talk to one of our experienced team today
www.vetlife.co.nz

